REGISTRATION

2011 Carry The Flame Ride from Barstow, California to Washington, D.C.

Please read before signing:

This is an American Motorcycle Association sanctioned ride. Upon joining the ride, you are required to check in with the Route Coordinator and/or a Road Captains. All riders will be required to show proof of a valid driver license with motorcycle endorsement, proof of insurance and sign an AMA liability release form. Use of DOT approved helmets and eye protection is strongly encouraged and required by many of the state we will be traveling in.

Participants will be charged a one time registration fee $25. Each person is responsible for making their own overnight reservation. All participants must cover 100% of their own cost during this ride. Carry the Flame has received a substantial discount at many of the hotels we will be staying at but to receive this discount, some will require you to book rooms under the Carry The Flame Block up to six weeks in advance. Most of our hotels offer continental breakfast and many of our event host will offer refreshments or complimentary meals for registered riders.

Absolutely no consumption of alcoholic beverages or recreational drugs will be allowed before or during each day's ride. Carry the Flame reserves the right to remove any participant at any time during the ride who demonstrates unsafe riding practices which may endanger the lives or safety of other participants, or conducts his/herself in a disrespectful manner or action detrimental to the mission of Carry the Flame.
